WELCOME CALEB CRITTENDON

Caleb Crittendon serves as the Missions and Discipleship Pastor at Hope Point Church in Spartanburg, where he has been a member since leaving his position as interim Youth Minister here at Mt. Airy in 2018. Even greater than his love for Clemson Athletics is Caleb's passion to equip every member of the church to be fully engaged in the work of making disciples of all nations. He and his wife Demi are the proud parents of four children, two wild boys and two precious girls.

SUNDAYS NIGHTS THIS FALL

Beginning September 8 at 6:00pm, we will offer an 8 week ladies study in Building A. The study is called "Don't Make Me Count to Three" by Ginger Hubbard and will be led by Robin McDonald. This class is designed to help moms, grandmothers, and mothers-to-be move beyond frustration in handling obedience and develop confident and well-balanced kids. There is an optional companion book that can be purchased ahead of the class.

Also beginning September 8 at 6:00pm in the Sanctuary, we will offer Know | Grow | Sow for 2 weeks. This class will teach you how to share your faith without fear.

Beginning September 22, you will have your choice of two classes: Bible Basics and Deeper Dive/The Bible Toolbox. The Bible Basics class will be led by Brad Porter and will help you get familiar with God's Word, including finding Scripture, studying it, and applying it to your life. This class will meet in Building A. The Deeper Dive/The Bible Toolbox class is designed to explore why we believe what we believe. This class will meet in the Sanctuary and will be led by pastoral staff.

Please sign up at mtairybaptist.com for these classes.
